GENERAL STATEMENT.

The College grounds consist of sixty-five acres—and for beautiful scenery are not surpassed by any in the country. They are elevated and undulating, covered with a beautiful growth of evergreens, and command a splendid view of the Cumberland Mountains on the north, and of the Smoky Mountains on the south.

On these grounds have recently been erected three new buildings, at a cost of fifty thousand dollars.

The Central Building is adapted to and used exclusively for College purposes, and, in honor of the Founder of the Institution, is called Anderson Hall.

The North Dormitory, in honor of the late John C. Baldwin of New Jersey, is called Baldwin Hall, and is occupied by the young ladies. In this Hall ample and pleasant accommodations for board are provided for all the members of the Institution who may choose to board there.

The South Domitory, called Memorial Hall, is occupied by the young men.

In the basement of Baldwin Hall are 5, and in that of Memorial Hall are 10 kitchens for the benefit of Students who may prefer to board themselves.

These Halls are large and convenient, well lighted and ventilated—in every way attractive—and will accommodate about 130 Students.

All the rooms, in both buildings, are furnished with stoves, bedsteads and tables.

Maryville College.

Maryville College is situated in Maryville, on the Knoxville and Charleston Railroad, sixteen miles south of Knoxville.

It was founded in 1819, by the Rev. Isaac Anderson, D. D., who was its honored and able President for thirty-eight years.

The grand motive of the founder may be stated best in his own words: "Let the Directors and Managers of this sacred institution propose the glory of God and the advancement of that kingdom purchased by the blood of His only begotten Son as their sole objects."

Inspired by such a motive, he gathered a class of five in the fall of 1819, and in prayer and faith began and prosecuted the great work of his life.

The College was in continuous operation from its beginning up to the spring of 1861, when its work was suspended by the war, but resumed again in the fall of 1866.

During this time it has educated and sent forth, in the single profession of the ministry, more than one hundred and twenty men, nearly all of whom are natives of East-Tennessee.

Its work, thus far, has been accomplished with very limited means.

Its principal and almost only endowment has been the prayers, the faith, the self-denying and indefatigable labors of its founder and the professors associated with him.

The friends of the Institution are resolved to sustain it, and are making every effort to secure for it such an endowment as will enable it to do well the great work for which it was founded.

Young Ladies, qualified to join any of the classes in the College, are allowed to avail themselves of its advantages.
